

Certificate

UXQB® Certified Professional for Usability and User Experience – Foundation Level (CPUX-F)

Dr. Britta Meyer-Lutz

has successfully passed the exam for the certificate Certified Professional for Usability and User Experience – Foundation Level (CPUX-F). The exam took place on 23rd March 2020 in Online and was conducted by the certification body Certible OG.

The certificate confirms that the certificate holder has an understanding of the general terms and concepts in the field of Usability and User Experience, in particular in the following areas of competence:

- The human-centred design process
- Definitions, concepts and guidelines
- Understanding and specifying the context of use
- Specifying the user requirements
- Producing design solutions
- Usability tests
- Usability inspections and user surveys

The exam is based on the curriculum of the International Usability and User Experience Qualification Board (UXQB), publicly available at www.uxqb.org.

Certificate number:

bc25d9b9
dd2e0f0e
48e068ce
b9bafd58

Dipl.-Ing. Alexander Feder
Managing Director, Certible

Certible OG
Löwelstraße 20/2-3
1010 Vienna
Tel.: +43 (1) 348 3993
E-Mail: office@certible.com

Accredited certification body of UXQB

Certificate officially recognized by

Curriculum issued by

Certification conducted by

